The Tarklin Avalanche of last week

stated that a Dr. J. D. St. Joseph had been in Forest City, proposing to put up a fruit evaporator. If Dr. J. D. St. Joseph is in the matter and means business, we would remind him that there is no more suitable place for such a kind of business to be found in our state than right here at Oregon, Mo. Dr. St. Joseph should visit here at once, see our numerous canners and examine orchards.

A. H. Greene & Sons, our brick-makers have opened up their first lot of brick, and it is pronounced by those who know to be a superior one. They are going right on with another lot, and have secured the services of Mr. Keith of Forest City, to assist. Mr. Keith is considered one of the best masons and brick makers in this section.

Some people are such inveterate bar-rowers that when they are in need of a good horse they will buy a cheap one. This is the way with those farmers who are now even worrying last an early frost should nip the late crops. To borrow trouble about that is a good deal like the girl who cried at the thought that possibly she might meet a man, marry him, have a child and the store door fall down and kill it; and then went would also do.

Montie, the undertaker who came here from Knightstown, Ind., to superintend the removal of the body of Mr. Ramsey, whose death we gave an account of last week, in a letter to H. E. Denny of this city, states they arrived with the body on the 15th and, the body consigned to its resting place on the same day. He returns thanks to the people of Oregon and vicinity for their kindly treatment, and he will ever have a warm feeling for our people, and says it is characteristic of the people of God's country.

Call and Settle.

All persons indebted to Lewis I. Moore are requested to call at the store of Moore & Seeman and settle, as I want to close my books. Lewis I. Moore.

urday, Aug. 23th, for the benefit of the M. E. church, South. All invited to attend.

—If you complete a course at the Electric City Business College of St. Joseph you will have no trouble in securing a position.

—Frank Blackstock has been employed to teach the school in the Pierce district the coming winter term of six months.

—The bottom below Forbes is covered with water, and considerable damage to crops. We are glad to learn that crops are being taken to drain it.

—There will be no services at the park next Sabbath because a good many who attend our services intend to go to the camp meeting.

—We are told by sportsmen that the bird raise of this spring dropped nearly all of the young quails. They will be scarce at picking time.

—Ladies who are cordially invited to call and inspect my new fall stock of dress goods, embracing the latest styles, patterns and shades. You will be pleased with them. Call and will make you prices. C. E. Painter, New Point, Mo.

Our work surpassed by none. If you want Marble work, don't buy before seeing us or our agents.

—J. W. Haines & Co. have accepted the business men's proposition of Matfield and will once begin the erection of a large full roller mill at Matfield. It will be of 75 barrels capacity. This is one of the best locations for a mill in the entire northwest, and the business men of Matfield are to be congratulated on this addition to their enterprises.

—The Young Ladies' Orchestra will keep open house in their rooms over Fitts' store next Saturday evening, Aug. 22nd. They extend a cordial invitation to one and all, the young, the old, the large and small. Ice cream, cake and lemonade will be served. Turn out and give the young ladies encouragement by patronizing them liberally.

—Those having old hedges growing along the public highways should remove them. The law requires them to be cut at 12 feet and if the owners will not attend to it at the expense of the owner, after being trimmed, the owner makes himself liable to a heavy fine if he does not immediately remove all the brush from the road.—Ex.

—In the discussion at the horticultural meeting last Saturday it was developed that the apple crop is about as large as last year. A number of orchards report 2,000 to 3,000 bushels. Mr. Lockhardt, of this place, expects to turn out at least a thousand barrels of perfect apples. The principal varieties are Winesap, Ben Davis and Jonathan. Prices ought to be good as the crop is short almost everywhere.

—It should be borne in mind by the old soldiers of this county, that the next annual reunion of the district veterans' association will be held at Rock Port, beginning Sept. 20th and will continue three days. The good people of Rock Port and Atchison county are preparing to entertain those who stand with their customary hospitality, and no pains or expense will be spared to make the reunion a success. The general arrangement is to hold the official orders published elsewhere.

ful geographical globes of D. W. Thuma, for fifty cents. There should be one in every home. This is one of the best globes ever placed on the market, and the low price places it within reach of every one.

fresh, and nothing but the latest styles and patterns carried in all lines. Call and see me and be convinced that I can and will sell you goods as cheap as they can be procured anywhere. C. E. Painter, New Point, Mo.

A free back will be run from the northwest corner of public square to the sale every half hour. See bills for further particulars.

—$3,000 worth of boots and shoes is a big order to be placed at one time, but that is just what R. L. Glascock & Co., successors to E. L. Boham, did this week. They buy everything else in the same way, and by buying in such wholesale quantities, get prices that enable them to make the unheard of bargains they are offering to their customers.

The best place we know of to get out of the heat and dust is at Mrs. D. E. Bennett's park. Take your family and go out next Sunday afternoon, and let them, as well as yourself, enjoy a nice dish of ice cream, and the refreshing breeze that can always be found in this favored spot.

—James Kneale our fellow townsman, while out riding with his invalid daughter, Mrs. Hearn, last Friday, came near having a serious accident, the horse becoming frightened and started off at break-neck speed. Mr. Kneale, however, succeeded in stopping him before any damage was done.

enterprising merchant of New Point, is receiving daily large invoices of fall goods, consisting of dry goods, dress goods, groceries, boots and shoes, crockery, notions, and is selling them at bottom figures. Go and see him, when you want bargains.

—Uncle Billy Brodbeck had a narrow escape from instant death, at New Point, last week. In attempting to cross a bridge, that separates one field from another on his place, he fell through, and but for rare presence of mind in reaching and catching hold of a stringer, he would of went to the bottom and broken his neck. As it was he looks as if he had come out second best in a prize fight.
